Wealthy Weekend

The University of Sheffield's Arts and Humanities Faculty and the Guild of St George invite you to a weekend of artworks, activities, talks and discussions about wealth that matters, inspired by Ruskin's quote...

'there is no wealth but life.'

All events and activities are free.
No need to book.

Saturday 15th November

4.45pm - 6.30pm

Upper Chapel, Norfolk Street, S1

Wonder-Full Wealth

Feast on beautiful and unexpected images of wealth projected onto the outside of Upper Chapel. Magnificent landscapes, money that matters, and moments of magic in people's lives. Images and words from the Ruskin Collection, University of Sheffield, artists, economists, environmentalists, changemakers and people in Sheffield. Watch from the pavement or in the courtyard.

Manifesto For Wealth

12 noon - 1pm

Local thinkers, makers and doers offer insights into the wealth that matters, and how to make more of it in Sheffield, followed by audience discussion. Speakers include Julia Udall, Portland Works Steering Group; Tony Bowring, Arts on the Run; Felicity Stout, woodland historian; Jason Leman, Sheffield Equality Group; Sara Hill, Opus Independents, and Ben Curran, Councillor for Walkley. Chaired by Jane Hodson, University of Sheffield.

Wealth That Matters:

How To Make It And Spend It

2pm - 3.30pm

Clive Wilmer, Master of the Guild of St George; Fiona Reynolds DBE, Master of Emmanuel College, Cambridge, and former Director-General of the National Trust; and Andrew Simms, Global Witness's chief environment analyst, former policy director at the New Economics Foundation and author of best-selling Tescopoly, offer their perspectives on economic, social and environmental wealth that matters, followed by audience discussion. Chaired by Guild of St George director, Janet Barnes.

Natural Wealth

11am - 4pm

Exhibitions and drop-in activities for adults and children:

Tree of Wealth

Using natural charcoal, draw what's precious to you onto wood, to help create a silver birch tree artwork.

Nature's Bounty

Make something beautiful from natural materials with outdoor youth theatre specialists Growtheatre.

Fairness on the 83

Filed interviews and photographs showing what users of the 83 bus route think about inequality and fairness in Sheffield. Created by Opus Independents, drawing on the Sheffield Fairness Commission 2013 and the State of Sheffield 2014 reports.

ReMake Castlegate

Find out how the School of Architecture at the University of Sheffield created a 3D model to build local ideas into making the Castlegate area a better place to live and work. Add your own ideas for its future development.

Museum of The Great Outdoors

Exhibition exploring the unique relationship between Sheffield, the Peak District and its diverse community of users. Created by the University of Sheffield.

There Is No Wealth But Life

Photographs of the wealth that matters created by people taking part in workshops run by Shelter and Stories from the Street.

Stories of Success

Read Sheffield people's personal stories of success collected in a postbox during 'Time Passes. Listen.', a community arts project run by Bare Project. Post your own stories into the box.
